Seemingly Endless Lines

The night finally arrived for our long awaited Junior Prom, May 11, 1990, set at the Sheraton Tara in Nashua, New Hampshire.

All were dressed in glamour gowns and tuxes, as they waited in the endless lines to get their pictures taken to capture the magical evening filled with smiles and laughter. Then they moved on to the crowded dance floor.

The night was special for all that attended, especially for Prom Queen Stephanie Picard and her date Kevin Pucillo. It was a "Time to Remember".

Play me another one, Sam.

Denise Simas and her date get close as they dance endlessly through the night.

The birdie hit the line.

The annual Senior Christmas badminton tournament was fierce this year. There were many great teams competing, but we could only have four winners. They were the champions Mike Glavine and Tim Doyle, defeating their opponents Phil Elias and Peter Imbimbo. Rachael Barbarossa and Sherri Mills were the girl's champions, defeating their opponents Marcy Cronin and Pam Moser.

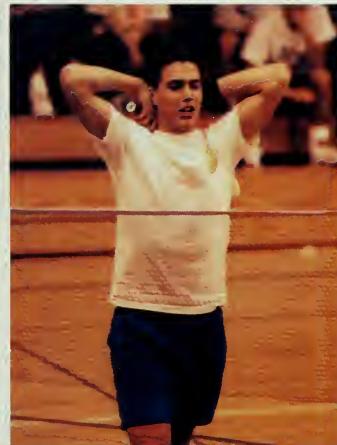

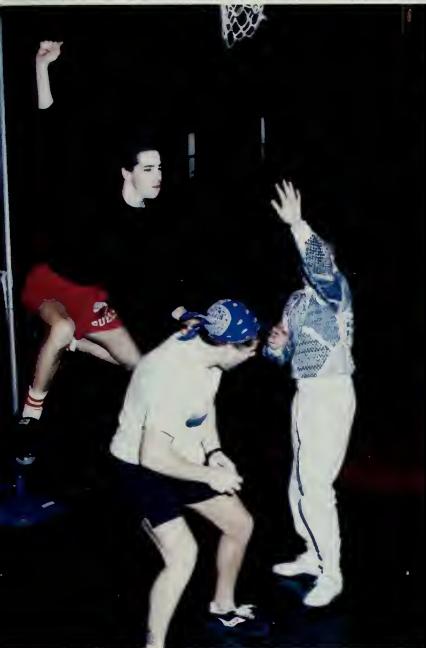

▲ Charlton-I got it!

▲ Sherri Mills looks at Rachael Barbarossa knowing that they beat their opponents.

Marcy Cronin and Pam Moser show great team work.

The Thanksgiving pep rally was filled with excitement concerning class Spirit Week results. All classes showed great spirit, especially the Class of '91. LIFE

Live each day,
like you've never done before.
Reach for the sky and like an eagle, soar!

Don't dwell on your mistakes and don't live in the past.
Because nobody's perfect and life goes by too fast!

Smile when you do things.
Do them with joy and pride.
Have faith in what you do and through life, you will glide!

Treat your friends
as you would want them to treat you.
And if all goes well, helping hands will shine through!

Always look for the good,
Since there's good in all things,
and you'll come out on top,

On The Line Of Scrimmage

The 1990 Thanksgiving Day game was the first in years that neither team was favored. Both Billerica and Chelmsford entered the game with 5-4 records and bragging rights on the line. The main feature of the game was the match-up of Billerica's outstanding defense versus Chelmsford's strong running game.

Neither team could get anything started early as both defenses played well. Billerica broke the stalemate in the second quarter off a strong drive led by the running of Shane Graham and the backfield blocking of big Matt Tholander.

The second half was more of the same but Billerica's offense was hurt by the loss of big starters Chris Tucker and Craig Flynn and was unable to get on track. Despite the valiant efforts of senior starters Matt Ousley, John McNulty, Fred Pollino, and Johnny and Ed Charlton, the defense was unable to hold Chelmsford's offense the entire game and gave up two fourth quarter touchdowns to lose by the score of 14-7.

Captains Paul Bolz and John Magliozzi take a break to contemplate strategy.

Borderline Victory

A raw, windy day marked the 1990-91 edition of the annual Powder Puff game. On the days prior to the game it seemed the senior team would never get organized, but on the day of the game a full team was present. Despite limited practice, the seniors still managed to win by just one point. Great efforts were shown by all the seniors, especially Marcy Cronin, Melanie Ferris, Terri Bejtlich, and Kerrie Bartlett.

It also must be said that the juniors displayed talent, especially Michelle Rouine, despite a few who carried out some cheap shots. Let's hope they continue the tradition of senior victory with a win next year.

Football: On The Fifty-Yard Line

The 1990 varsity football team enjoyed an outstanding season after going 0-9 the previous year. The season looked as if it would be disastrous when they dropped an 18-6 stunner against Haverhill. The following week the team faced perennial powerhouse Andover and lost a spirited 14-6 decision. Despite the heartbreaking loss, the Indians gained momentum and played Methuen and defeated the rangers 21-6 in their first win in 18 consecutive losses. With the confidence level up now, the tribe travelled to Dracut and handed the middies their worst defeat, 33-12. The following week Billerica stepped onto a rainsoaked Cawley Stadium field to face the Lowell red raiders. The game was a see-saw battle finally ending on a controversial play in the endzone where junior quarterback Craig Flynn's pass fell incomplete. The next two games were won by the Indians defeating Lawrence 42-0, and Don Bosco 14-0. The following week the Indians played Tewksbury and dropped a heartbreaker. The Indians then split the last two games. The Indians ended the season 5-5, but it was a winning effort for everyone involved.

Fall Cheering: On The Sidelines

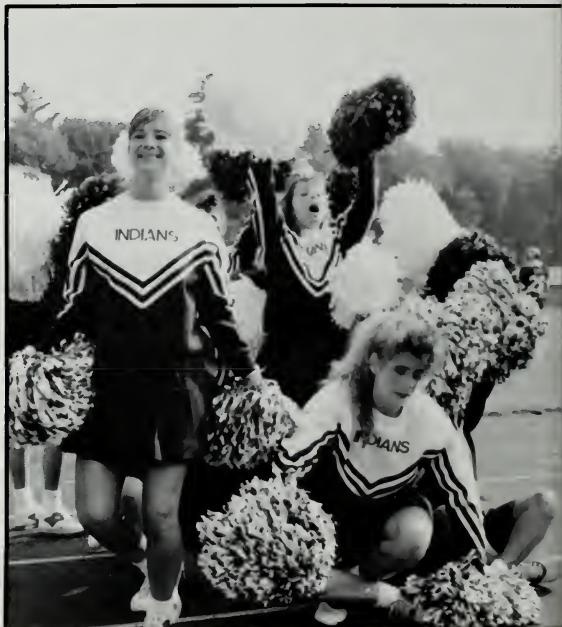

The 1990 football cheering season actually began in July, two months before school was in session. Our squad went to camp at Emmanuel College where we received a first place trophy for an all around cheering competition. Although this camp was not what the team had anticipated we made the best of things and everyone had fun while still learning things that were used during the season.

Practices started in August with a lot of spirit that continued throughout the season. Judi Anthony, Paula Souza, and Debbie Maniacotti were excellent captains, demonstrated by leading an often frustrated squad to a successful season. With help from Renee Herbert and Tarah Clifford on dance routines, Paula Odierno for her outstanding gymnastics ability, and Val Brooks for her humor, we performed well throughout competitions and the pep rally.

Boys Soccer: On The Halfway Line

The 1990 boys soccer season was not played out like the seniors on the team had hoped.

Ever since our freshman year, as we endured near misses for an MVC and early exits from the state tournament, we could always look forward to the next season. But when that season finally came and went, the outcome was never how we had envisioned it.

When our senior year was finally upon us, we figured that it would be different. But once again the almighty soccer gods did not grant us those dreams.

The 1990 edition of the BMHS boys soccer team finished with a 7-4-6 record. The team failed to qualify for the first time during our four year tour. Because of the way the MIAA sets up its qualification standards for soccer, we needed 20.06 points to qualify—or in the rounded eyes of the MIAA—we needed 21. We finished with 20 points! Our six ties had killed us.

We started the 1990 campaign with nothing but optimism. In the season opener, we lost a wet and controversial 1-0 contest to an arch-rival Chelmsford (the referee assisted on the goal). Over the next five games, we posted a 3-0-2 record. During that stretch, we scored 16 goals and gave up only 2.

We couldn't quite muster that knockout punch over our next 6 games as we compiled a 1-1-4 record. Over that span though, we showed that we could play with some of the best teams in the state. Concord-Carlisle, the #1 ranked team in Division 2, barely escaped with a 1-1 tie. We handed Dual County power Acton-Boxborough a 0-0 tie. We also played arch-rival Chelmsford to a 1-1 deadlock on a cold and rainy night.

Over our final 5 games, we posted a 3-2-0 record. The high point during that stretch was a 1-0 boxing match win over Lowell which knocked them out of the state tournament.

Despite the final 7-4-6 record and failure to qualify for the state tournament, these were by no means indications of a lack of effort by the team.

The defense was spectacular. The "D" was anchored by senior tri-captain Kevin Goodwin, junior tri-captain Joe Salerno, junior Mark Tracy and senior Tom Connors. Juniors John Quinlan and Joe Hobbs secured the wing fullbacks.

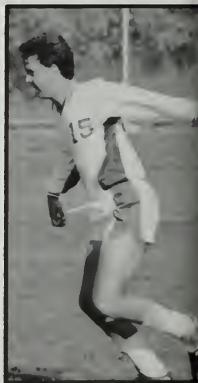

The midfield showed their aggression and toughness as they controlled many a ball-game. The midfield consisted of senior tri-captain and MVC League All-Star Kevin Colby, Matt Cotter, Jeff Haverty, Tom Roach, and Scott Rumley.

The forward line was comprised of senior Pat Sullivan, junior Tom Durant, and sophomore Dennis Banewitz, Bob Ross and Todd Rumley. Tom Roach, named to the MVC All-Conference team finished third in the MVC scoring race.

Overall the 1990 soccer season would have to be labeled a success. We won close to 60% of our games. How can that be ignored? If Lady Luck had donned an Indian uniform; if we got a bounce here or a roll there—then who knows what could have happened. Maybe that magic carpet just might have given Billerica a ride.

Girls Soccer: On The Halfway Line

Although the girls soccer team compiled an impressive record of successes over the four years during which the seniors played, all of the seniors on the team agree that the highlight of their career came in their freshmen year. In the first round of the 1989 state tournament, Billerica which was placed fourteenth in the Northeast division was seeded against Acton-Boxboro which was placed second. Billerica provided the biggest upset of the tournament by beating Acton-Boxboro after nine overtimes and two days of play.

This post-season success put the Billerica girls soccer team in the spotlight. Instead of withering under the pressure, the team continued with their high level of performance, compiling a 44-16-11 record over four years.

Captains Rachael Barbarossa, Amy Doherty and Moira Ouellette, senior Jenn Ward, and senior manager Julie Hayes all contributed to their team's success. In the 1990 season, the team placed three players on the All-Conference team, including senior goalie Rachael Barbarossa and three players on the All-Star team, including senior full-back Moira Ouellette.

Boys Cross-Country: On The Starting Line

The Boys Cross Country team surprised everybody this year and finished with an impressive 7-3 record, which was fourth overall in the league. This is the best record the team has had since 1982.

The highlight of the season was beating Small School Champion Dracut by one point. There were also close three point victories against Andover, Tewksbury and Haverhill.

In the Northern Area Championships, senior Mike Spolidoro finished in the top 25 while at the State Coaches Meet, sophomore Corey Cameron finished 23rd to earn a medal.

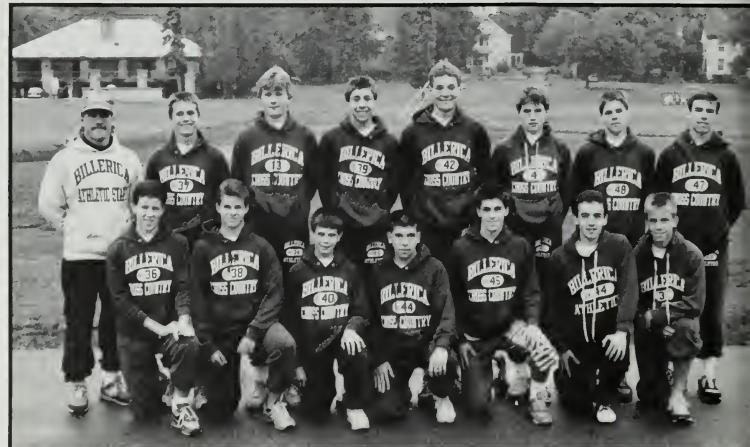

The team had three all stars, who were Spolidoro, Cameron and senior John Anderson and one ALL-Conference who was senior Don Fay.

Other team members who ran well were seniors Jim Capone, Rich Batten, John McDonough, Chris Calabrese, Jim Faulkner, junior Chuck Legg, sophomores Tom Davies, Darren Marsh, and freshmen Chris Spring and Lucas Breen.

A little post-meet relaxation!

Girls Cross-Country: On The Starting Line

The girls cross country team finished the season with a record of 3-4. Leading the Indians were co-captains Coreen White and Tina Rouine, and other seniors Donna King, Terri Bejtlich, Maureen Murray, Monica Ly, and Kieve Ly.

Sophomore Laura Traynham was recognized as an outstanding runner. She placed within the top four during every dual meet. Then she went on to qualify for the All-State Meet where she placed twenty-sixth. Tina Rouine and Donna King placed in the top twenty percent at the Northern Area Meet.

Over the course of the season, the seniors displayed much hard work and team spirit.

Girls Volleyball: On The Service Line

The Girls Volleyball team had a tough season this year. Finishing with a 9-10 record, no opponent in the MVC could be taken lightly. We had tough wins against Wilmington and Lowell and some tough losses against Lawrence, Haverhill, and Andover. The highlight of the season was our win over Chelmsford in two straight matches.

This year's team was led by our only senior and co-captain Marcy Cronin. She was chosen as an All-Star for her performance on defense along with junior Jackie Pettingel for serving. Junior co-captain Kayleen McNulty was not only chosen as an All-Star for her hitting, but was also chosen for the All-Conference team for defense.

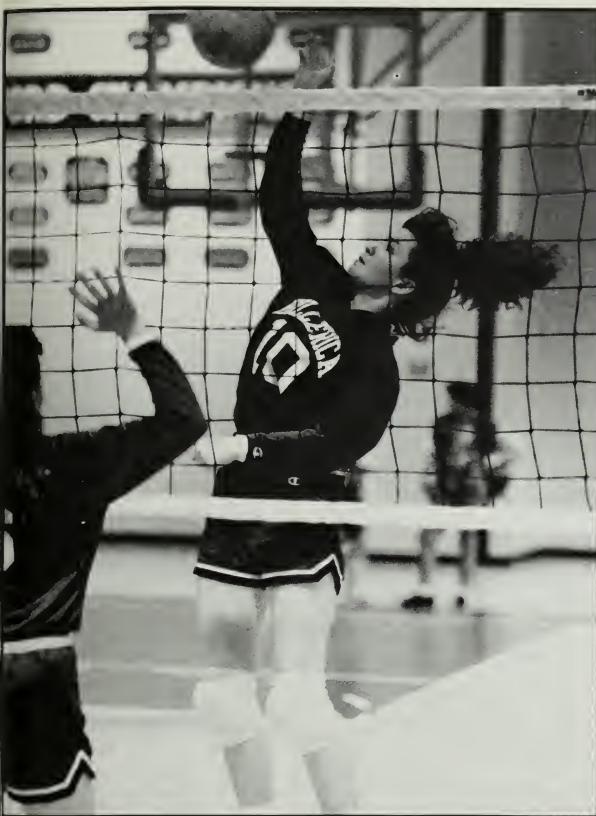

Overall this year's team grew more as individual players than as a unit. We're looking forward to next year when we hope to capture the MVC title.

Marcy's ready for anything.

Golf: Lining Up The Putt

The golf team had a very successful season, with the record of 10-5 placing them third in the Merrimack Valley Conference. The team also qualified for the State Tournament, where they came in fifteenth overall.

The highlight of the season was the victory over the defending state champions Haverhill, 9 to 3, which brought an end to their fifty-one game winning streak. Senior members of the team are Mike Glavine, Steve Cascio, Mike Allen, Tom Gualtieri and Brian Zawatsky.

Swimming: Between The Lines

It was a memorable season, from day one, even though it came three weeks late. Pre-season looked grim, as there were only the nine returning swimmers. When the season started, however, we had a total of thirty-four people. With the first meet only two weeks away, we took on the task of training the twenty-three new faces.

It was a building year. Though the wins were few, the spirit of the team could not have been any higher. Day in and day out, victory was always achieved by the rapid improvement of each individual.

We will miss our first year seniors, Kristen Dineen and Damaris Dedulonus, whose determination and enthusiasm showed us that "it is never too late."

We look forward to next year, as we will be a little bit older and a little bit wiser.

Yearbook

Deadlines, deadlines, deadlines. That was the big complaint of the 1991 Warrior Yearbook staff as they worked in a constant state of organized chaos to produce the book you hold in your hands.

Under the leadership of co-editors Kristen Hodge and Monica Ly and with the direction of Mr. Flynn and Miss Marinaro, the staff produced a book of over 230 pages containing the remarkable memories and stunning accomplishments of the class of '91. The theme of the book is "On the Line," and an arrow rather than the traditional Indian figure unites the theme to the school symbol.

Creating the yearbook requires skills of layout and design that are usually developed over one or two summers at "Yearbook Camp" at Bryant College where students from all over New England participate in intensive 3-day workshops.

The staff this year was composed of the seniors, juniors, and sophomore interns featured in the pictures that accompany this story. They hope you enjoy their efforts.

Co-editors Monica Ly and Kristen Hodge take care of the final preparations.

Student Government

"AAAH! This school drives me crazy. I wish I could change how . . ." All students at some point in their high school careers want to alter the school in some way. It is easy to find people complaining about the disciplinary code, teachers, the short time between classes, or our most favorite gripe, Channel One. Although few people are motivated enough to do something to change the problem, there was a small group of students who were chosen by their peers to represent them in dealing with their problems.

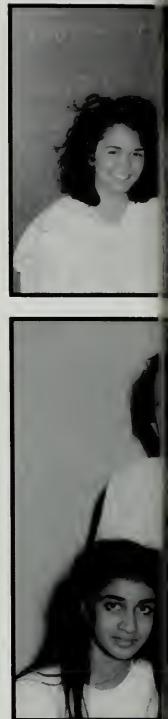

Students who were upset about school procedures should have complained to the Handbook Review Committee. Two students, Kevin Brown and Robin Lynch, were elected by the student body in our senior year to make sure that the concerns of the student body were considered.

The Student Advisory Board to the School Committee was composed of five members, one of whom sat on stage with the School Committee as a non-voting member. For the school year 1990-1991, David Smith was the chairperson of this group which included Amy Doherty, Kevin Brown, Kim Medeiros, and Robin Lynch. Especially when the budget crisis became very serious, this group played an important role in voicing the students' opinions.

Outside of the school system, the student body had representatives on a regional and state wide basis. The three members of the Regional Student Advisory Council, David Smith, Cheryl Jollimore, and Shri Anandan met with area students each month to learn about the legal rights of students and ways to improve BMHS.

On a state wide basis, students were given insight into state government through Student Government Day at the State House. In our senior year, Amy Doherty and alternate Kim Medeiros were elected to represent our school. After attending three workshops and actually debating about student initiated bills on the floor of the House of Representatives and the Senate, participants were well informed of the processes through which proposals become law. These representatives became resources for students who wished to bring an issue to the state level.

Unfortunately, the student body did not use all of these elected representatives to their full advantage. However, the students who were participants in these organizations gained valuable experience in public speaking, politics, and the power and responsibility of living in a democracy.

Drum Line

Historically, the Billerica Memorial High School Marching Band and Silver Jade Color Guard have competed successfully.

The 1990-91 season was no different. Through diligence and perseverance, the group completed the season ranked second in their highly competitive circuit. This year's band was led by award winning Field Directors Elizabeth Whyte and Patricia Morrison, Drum Line Captain Colleen Ryan, and Color Guard Captain Karen Rivard.

Every competition resulted in trophies representing first or second place. In addition, they received awards in the areas of Best Drum Line, Best Color Guard, Best Music, Best Marching, and Best Drum Major.

Although the 1991 graduates leave the group, they have great confidence that future members will keep the spirit.

Hockey: On The Blue Line

The season started off dismally, with the loss of senior tri-captain Mike Paskiewicz. But despite injuries, the team pulled off an incredible season, placing in the first ever Elite 8 Division.

The highlight of the season was the spectacular comeback victory over Central Catholic at Merrimack College. Senior Mike Glavine captured the Merrimack Valley Scoring Title, helping the team pull off an undefeated league season.

All the seniors wish the best of luck to the returning lettermen and upcoming players. Good Luck!

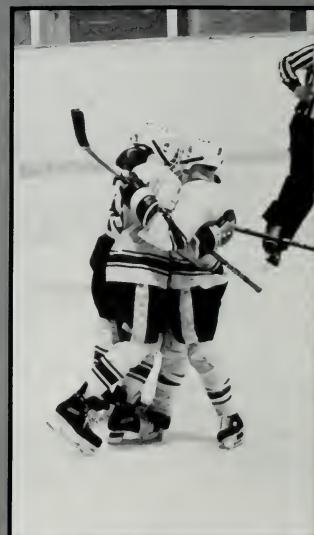

As usual, Mike Glavine stays on his toes!

Girls Basketball: On The Foul Line

The girls varsity basketball team had a disappointing season going 0-18, but there was a lot of talent on this team. Despite a no-win regular season record, the Indians did manage to get two wins and win the Greater Lowell Holiday Tournament. In the first game, the Indians beat the Shawsheen Tech 45-38 behind Rachael Barbarossa with 18 points, captain Cherie Gambale with 8 points, and Marcy Cronin leading the offense at point guard. The Indians captured the title with a win against Greater Lowell 40-31. Barbarossa again had 18 points and Marcy Cronin led the offense playing flawlessly at point guard.

Senior Rachael Barbarossa and junior Jackie Pettingell were named to the All-Star team. The Indians are hoping to get out of the slump next year, looking to returning lettermen Kayleen McNulty, Jackie Pettingell, Karen Hayes, Tanya Tamis, Laurie Pucillo, Beth Love, and Melissa Rochefort.

Basketball: On The Foul Line

The 1990-91 edition of the B.M.H.S. Boys Varsity basketball team was not the smooth ride of a season that all involved had hoped it to be. In fact, it was a bumpy, winding, treacherous roller coaster ride of a season that all but summed up four years of 9-61 basketball frustration.

The team compiled an overall record of 1-18. It was a "rebuilding" year in which many underclassmen were broken in. The team was led by three seniors. They were Matt Cotter, Steve Duby, and Scott Morrisroe, who were instrumental in providing leadership and sanity in an otherwise insane season. The team was rounded out by juniors Jim Calo, Dana Cottrell, John Falzone, Craig Flynn, Jodi Norton, Chris Pacheco, Mike Strazzere, and sophomore Aaron Duncan.

The high points of the season were the many thrills and near-misses which the team provided night-in and night-out. For after a game, it would truly be hard for someone to say that they did not get their money's worth.

The sole mark which the Indians chalked up in the "W" column came on February 14, 1991 on a cold night in Wilmington, when Cupid rained arrows down on the Indian hoopsters, providing them with a 59-52 Valentine's Day present.

Overall it was a tough season in the W and L columns, but the lessons learned will be lessons that will last a lifetime.

Winter Cheering: On The Sidelines

The 1991 Basketball Cheerleaders had a successful season. Led by senior tri-captains Kerri Charette, Stephanie Vokey and junior Jennifer Donovan, the squad participated at the University of Connecticut cheering camp where the girls worked hard, earning many spirit and technique awards and the Most Improved Squad Trophy.

Despite having only three veteran cheerleaders and ten new girls, the squad choreographed two routines and showed its spirit at basketball games and at two competitions this season. This year's squad consisted of seniors Heidi Breitwieser, Kelly Burke, Charette, Rebecca Day, Vokey, Jen Weiting, juniors Christine Anton, Tammy Cardia, Donovan, Heidi Fletcher, Cheryl Morgan, and sophomores Dawn Keefe and Wendy Zangri. All of the cheerleaders would like to thank Mrs. Gallagher for her efforts to the team and for being a great coach! Good luck to next year's squad.

Boys Winter Track: Run Between The Lines

Led by tri-captains Tom Galligani, Don Fay and Mark Brady and a large senior class, the Billerica Memorial High Schools Boys Indoor Track team had one of the more successful seasons in recent memory. The team fared well in the MVC, which in 1991 was the most competitive league in the state. They sported a dual meet record of 4-4 and competed well in many invitationals.

The team boasted one All-Conference selection in middle distance, sophomore sensation Corey Cameron as well as seven league All-Stars. They included Tom Galligani in the high jump, Mark Brady in the hurdles, Don Fay, John Anderson, and Mike Spolidoro in distance and the relay team of Eric Knowlton, sophomore Tom Davis and again Cameron and Brady.

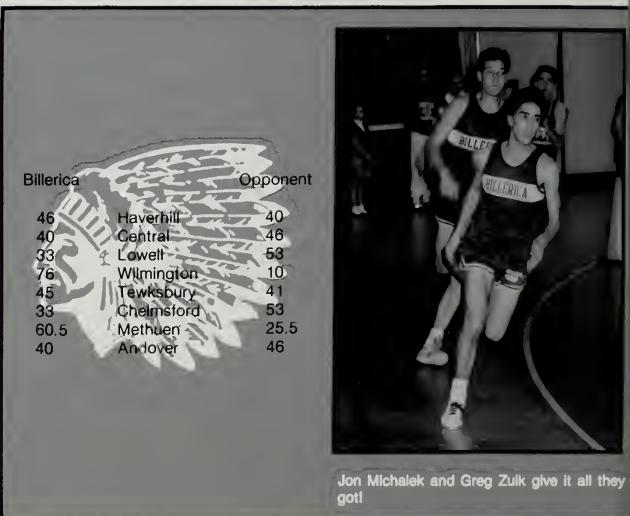

The star of this team was Cameron. He was a force in duelmeet competition in the 600 yard run as well as a standout in the invitationals. He placed sixth in the State Coaches Meet With a time of 1:16.9. He crossed the finish line fifth in the State Class A as well as earning a tenth place finish at the All-State Meet.

Other standouts included Galligani who jumped to eighth place in the long jump at the New England Invitational as well as the 4x200 meter relay team of Galligani, Davis, Michalek and Cameron which also qualified for this elite meet.

Girls Winter Track: Run Between The Lines

The Girls Indoor Track team finished their season with a dismal record of 3-4. However, this is not an accurate representation of the Lady Indians.

Captains Coreen White, Tina Rouine, Andrea Thompson and Donna King expressed outstanding team unity and dedication along with other seniors Susan DeVito, Kiev Ly and Jenn Ward. The team was well managed by Monica Ly, Maureen Murray and junior Robin Lynch.

The 4x800 relay team of Donna and Linda King, Michelle Rouine and Nikki Fitzgerald qualified sixth in the All-States to run in the New Englands which took place at Brown University in Rhode Island. Sophomores Laura Traynham (distance) and Linda King (mid-distance) were recipients of the All-Conference All-Star Team.

Wrestling: Out Of Line

The Wrestling team made their presence felt in Division 1, by placing second ahead of Chelmsford for the first time in five years and finishing with a 14-3-1 dual meet record. The team was captained by John Razzaboni, Jamie Jenkins and Mike Curtis. The team had an impressive two champions in two prestigious tournaments. John Razzaboni and Mike Curtis both came home with the gold in the Division I Sectional Tournament.

The team combined came in second place. The Indians also made a name for themselves by bringing six wrestlers to the State Tournament held out in Springfield, Ma. They were Razzaboni, Curtis, Jenkins, juniors Matt Tholander, Kirk Legatos, Keith Gamble and John Needham. In the states, Curtis captured the State Championship at 160 lbs., and Jenkins came in fifth.

The team has high hopes for next year, bringing back many talented wrestlers. Tholander, Needham and Legatos should lead the way for the Indians!

Gymnastics: Balance On The Line

The Girls Gymnastics team did an excellent job with their performances this year. With the help and patience of senior tri-captains Stephanie Hart, Paula Odierno and Judi Anthony, the team turned out a respectable record. Despite all the injuries within the team throughout the year, they managed to score a high of 117.75.

Although the team will miss senior Paula Souza and the tri-captains, they look forward to next year under the guidance of Coach Ducharme.

Dear Graduates,

What is a diploma? What does it mean? Certainly the answers each of you gives to these questions are colored by your experiences of schooling and of B.M.H.S. Unfortunately, for some the diploma represents only a ticket to a higher salary or to a more comfortable life. For others, the diploma may be a sign of knowledge and skills acquired, of insights obtained, or of reflection upon important issues in our lives achieved.

But best of all, is the diploma as a symbol of one's coming of age - as a rite of passage from youth into adulthood. And with that passage, it is my hope that you have acquired a deeper understanding of yourself, and your responsibilities to others in need, and of your place in this increasingly complex society.

This world in which we live is composed of too many people who mindlessly follow the advice of others. We desperately need energetic, reflective and articulate future leaders like yourselves. May your diploma represent the beginning of your efforts to assume leadership roles in the lives of your families, towns and world.

Congratulations on your graduation.

Best wishes,

Line In The Sand

"The liberation of Kuwait has begun," declared President George Bush on January 16, 1991. With that statement, the United States went headlong into its first war since Vietnam, careful to avoid the stigma of that conflict while skillfully pursuing its objective of removing the threat of Saddam Hussein.

For all of us, the students at BMHS, the Persian Gulf war was also our first experience with war. And, for many, it was also the first experience of seeing a loved one sent into combat. The first day of fighting, all of our eyes were glued to the T.V. monitors as the war unfolded before us. As with any war, the media had a profound impact on public opinion. Like Vietnam, the media brought the Persian Gulf War into the living rooms of Billerica students' houses. However, unlike Vietnam, the media worked to create a positive image of the war.

Originally, the realization of war in the 1990s had many of us questioning the global future. However, once the military superiority of the United States was established, we soon realized that it would almost be possible to clock the entire span of the war with a stopwatch. Through a war where more United States servicemen were killed in accidents than in actual combat, we began to question our own mortality and face the prospect of being shipped thousands of miles to the Middle East and dropped into combat immediately upon graduation.

For this Class of '91, Saddam Hussein and the liberation of Kuwait were a blast of reality. Being sheltered for four years under the protection of the high school, many of us began to realize that the house of protection offered by BMHS would not gradually dissipate shingle by shingle, brick by brick, but it would be ripped apart simultaneously by floods, tornadoes, earthquakes, volcanoes, and various other natural or unnatural disasters such as war. We count ourselves lucky to know that our house was obliterated from over our heads only to find that it was a warm sunny day. With that, we have time to contemplate, reflect, move on and build new shelter or brave the elements. Desert Storm may not be able to claim members of the Class of '91 as casualties of war heroes, but it has given us a warning that even in the 1990s, war, sinister in any age, still exists.

Carpe Diem.

The Long Gray Line

"How many days do you have left?" is the ever present question as school comes to an end, as if our freedom would miraculously be snatched from our grasps as we take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States at our respective academies.

"Twenty days, but twenty days too long," is our anxious response.

Why service academies? Why oblige ourselves to five years of service after our graduation? Of course, we'll have our own personal reasons.

But, our reasons are all similar. Most of us are compelled to take up and overcome the challenges which an academy provides. The unique balance of sports and academics is paralleled at no other institution. We are looking beyond the academics, beyond the piece of paper on which a testimony to a degree is scrawled. Also, there is a desire to serve our country as our country has served us thus far. No, we are not blinded by the flag and mindless cries of patriotism. Rather, we have decided that our training will not only enable us to protect, but also to improve our country.

No, we are not going to prison. No, we don't want anyone to feel sorry that we won't be able to spend our summers going to the beach, partying, and wasting away the days. Yes, we are willing to make some sacrifices for a top quality education and amazing opportunities.

For all of us, the opportunity to attend such revered institutions is a dream come true. We look ahead to the future with excited anticipation as we remember that making one's bed with hospital corners and marching in line is truly a small price to pay for such an honor.

Education On The Line

During the spring and summer before our senior year at BMHS, horror stories about the severe budget cuts which were being forced upon the school system began to appear in the newspapers and on the morning broadcasts. After having been able to enjoy relatively small class sizes and a wide selection of elective courses, students were shocked into thinking that their senior year would be stripped of quality experiences. Although we adjusted to the changes and were able to relish our last days in high school, the cuts were unpleasant at the least.

As the School Committee started planning for the 1990/1991 school year, they were faced with the need to reduce their budget by an incredible sum of $2.7 million. Coupled with the gloomy state economy, a shortfall in the expected amount of revenue from taxes collected from the townspeople resulted in a dramatic situation for both the school system and the town. At the same time that the West Billerica fire station was being closed, the school system had to lay off approximately 60 faculty members and reduce services throughout the system.

In addition to the elimination of courses and teaching positions and the increase in class sizes and study halls, seniors were being affected in all of their school related activities. At the same time that we were saying good-bye to Mr. Greenawalt and missing such popular teachers as Mr. Hipps, Mr. King, and Mrs. Cronin, we were also paying a $35 transportation fee for each athletic team or club that we joined.

All of these cuts made us think: "What is the value of an education? Do people really care about the schools?" Anyone who came to a School Committee meeting when the budget cuts were being discussed saw huge crowds of angry people who wanted to ensure that the Billerica school system continued to provide quality education. However, when feelers were put out to the people of Billerica to see if they would pass a Proposition 2½ override, the response was negative. The average person was not willing to increase his/her taxes when we did; future cuts include a $135 fee for each season of sports and between $50 and $60 for each club or activity. However, on a larger scale, perhaps the budget cuts were a good lesson for the graduating seniors. We were taught not only to never take good circumstances for granted, but also that, as voters who experienced severe cuts in education firsthand, we must remember the schools' needs as the next generation of students pass through the schools.

for one year to ease the effect of the deficit on the schools and the town.

The budget problems did not end when we left the high school. Many graduating seniors were relieved that we were able to leave

Breadlines

The 22nd annual Walk for Hunger was held on May 5 of this year. Thousands upon thousands of volunteers collected pledges for this 20-mile march in order to raise money to combat hunger in Massachusetts. Coordinated by Project Bread, a Boston anti-hunger group, the walk raises millions of dollars each year, which is distributed to various soup kitchens, food pantries, and emergency feeding programs.

"It's a great way to show some generosity, and it's fun, too," said Monica Ly, who completed the entire march through Boston, Brookline, and Cambridge.

Many others from B.M.H.S. volunteered for the walk, also. This is just another way in which the students can let their caring nature and true spirit shine through.

Beautiful weather added to the success of the 1991 Walk for Hunger.

The 1991 bi-annual blood drive, held in November and May, was a great success. Sponsored by the National Honor Society, the Red Cross drives allowed students and faculty members alike to show their kindness and caring in giving a sick or dying person another chance at life. Each time, N.H.S. members inform people about the drives and urge them to donate. In addition, the members help advisor Mr. Cox by comforting donors and making sure enough snacks are available for the donors after they have given blood.

Other activities of N.H.S. include a stationery sale, helping on parents' nights, the induction ceremonies, and a Chinese food celebration.

Let's hope this N.H.S. tradition of good will continues with the Class of '92!

Boys Volleyball: On The Service Line

The Boys Volleyball team had a rough season this year with a record of 4 and 11. Our wins were against Methuen, Algonquin, and Holliston. We were a better team than our record stated. We took the top teams to very close games. The Lowell series was taken to 3 games. The same thing happened in the finals in the Northeast Conference.

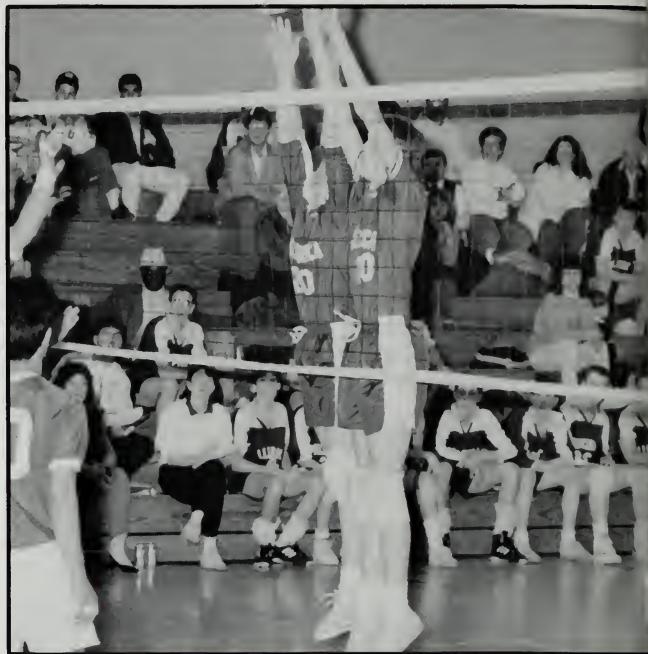

We made the best of the losing season. The team will remember the cut-down wars at the back of the bus, the "Rusty Dance," and Jay's ferret. We had a lot of fun at practice and playing outside.

Softball: Line Drive

The 1991 Softball team was more than successful in "getting the edge" this season, highlighted by a 4-2 ten inning win over Haverhill. Ending the season with a 15-3 season, the team qualified for the State Tournament and captured the Large School title.

In the first round of the State Tournament, Billerica surprised many skeptics by wiping out Gr. Lowell, 12-3. After many delays the Indians finally faced defending State Champions Bishop Fenwick. Although the team took a 2-0 lead in the first inning, Billerica took the heart breaking loss of 6-3.

Graduating from the team are co-captains Rachael Barbarossa and Marcy Cronin. Both showed outstanding leadership qualities and helped lead the team to the title. Their attitudes can be summed up in a quote given to The Sun by Rachael earlier in the season, "There aren't any individuals on this team; We win because we play as a unit."

Baseball: Line Drive

Playing their last season for Billerica Boys Baseball are Gary Torpey, Steve Cascio, Mike Allen, Andy Kelley, Paul Bolz, Tim Morgan, Mike Glavine, Tom Gualtieri, and Mike Hayes. Their proudest achievement of the year was their bounce back from a poor first half of the season. They recovered to play almost perfect ball and survived to make the State Tournament under the direction of Coach Sidorovich.

Although the season was not as great as they had hoped, the experiences and friendships gained made their careers on the B.M.H.S. field proud and memorable.

Lacrosse: On The Center Line

Sparked by the return of a veteran coach (Steve Connolly), dedicated seniors and hard working underclassmen, the Billerica Lacrosse team regained its status of old. The team's overall record was 15 wins and 4 losses.

This team played with heart, desire, and determination. This was never more noticeable than in a 10 to 9 win over rival Winchester. With 1:33 left to go, we were down by three goals. Through dedication and a little luck, we pulled it out and took over the top spot in the North Division.

By the end of the season, this team had boasted a record of 15 and 3 and first place in the North Division. They received their first invitation to the State Tournament in 10 years, but unfortunately lost 8-7 to a Newton South team.

Major contributors to the cause were captains John McNulty and Chris MacInnis; seniors Andrew Yavarow, Craig Major, Matt Ousley, Keith Cataldo, Tom Conners, Justin Caserta, John D'Orsi, John Politano, Tom Roach, John Smith, and Ed Charlton.

Justin Caserta heads downfield.

Craig Major makes another great save.

Led by seniors Tina Rouine, Coreen White, Kiev Ly, Jenn Ward, Amy Ciccarelli, Terri Betjlich, tri-captains Donna King, Sue DeVito and Andrea Thompson, the '91 Girls Track team managed to win three meets against power-packed teams in the MVC.

During the season, the girls participated in many non-MVC meets such as the Wilmington Invitational, where the team placed fourth with a score of 54. The Freshman-Sophomore Meet, and the highlight of the season at the State Relays held at Brockton High.

The team turned in a strong performance with numerous top-place finishes. Scoring in second place was the 4x200 of DeGeronimo, Tzannos, Thompson and Yavarow. The shuttle hurdle team of Yavarow, D. King, Stewart and DeVito placed fourth as did the sprint medley quartet composed of DeGeronimo, Tzannos, Thompson and T. Rouine. Claiming fifth place was the 4x800 squad of Traynham, Fitzgerald, M. Rouine and D. King. Also in fifth place was the distance medley of White, L. King, T. Rouine and Traynham. Finally the two field events teams of Thompson, Andrews, and Yavarow and the team of Passerini, Betjlich and Hammer both placed sixth in the triple jump and discus relays respectively.

Rounding up the season, the girls had two team members, Laura Traynham and Amy DeGeronimo, qualify for the All-State Meet.

Boys Spring Track: Across The Finish Line

The Billerica Boys Spring Track team continued the solid success of the Indoor Track team by proving to be one of the more talented teams in the area. Led by captains Tom Galligan, Don Fay, Eric Knowlton and Mark Brady, the hard working team registered a 4-4 record in the always tough Merrimack Valley Conference.

The team accomplished what no other Billerica spring track team could accomplish in twenty-four years. On the Wednesday afternoon of May 1st, Billerica defeated Chelmsford H.S. in a dual meet by the score of 95-50.

Other highlights of the 1991 season were the 73-72 victory over Haverhill H.S. in which the outcome of the meet rested on the shoulders of senior Aaron Williams in the last event of the day, the 200 meters. He came through for Billerica and won the meet.

Billerica had three athletes attain the All-Conference status. Eric Knowlton was selected for the 300 hurdles, sophomore Corey Cameron in the 400 meters and Tom Galligan in both the long jump and the triple jump.

Senior Galligan capped off an outstanding season, in which he was undefeated against Massachusetts competition, by winning the All-State Championships at East Springfield.

Girls Tennis: On The Baseline

The Girls Tennis season this year was a time of rebuilding and struggle. Throughout the season, the girls suffered injuries and colds, but through it all managed a 4-11 record. With six out of the seven varsity players graduated, it left a lot of work to the first year Coach Shirley Granfield. Becky Behm—the co-captain and lone senior—was the only returning varsity player. Behm, who received the Most Outstanding performer award, played second singles. The other six varsity players were underclassmen Sindi Boudreau at first singles and Casey Mahoney at third. The first doubles team consisted of next year's captains, Kathy Doyle and Pat Morrison, while second doubles consisted of the most improved player, Laurie Savage and co-captain Amy O'Sullivan. Overall, the girls had a good season and next year's season looks brighter with newcomers.

Boys Tennis: On The Base Line

The Boys Tennis Team finished with a 5-9 record this year. Having lost 6 starters, the team was prepared for a rebuilding year. Under the leadership of new Coach Tom Severo, the team went further than expected. Junior captain Ty Munson and senior captain Ken Heavey played first singles respectively. The third singles slot was played by sophomore Kevin Taylor.

Senior Jim Caruso and junior captain Brian Gibson played solid doubles throughout the season at first doubles. The second doubles team was shared by many up and coming players. Juniors Keith and Craig Bridge earned varsity letters at second doubles.

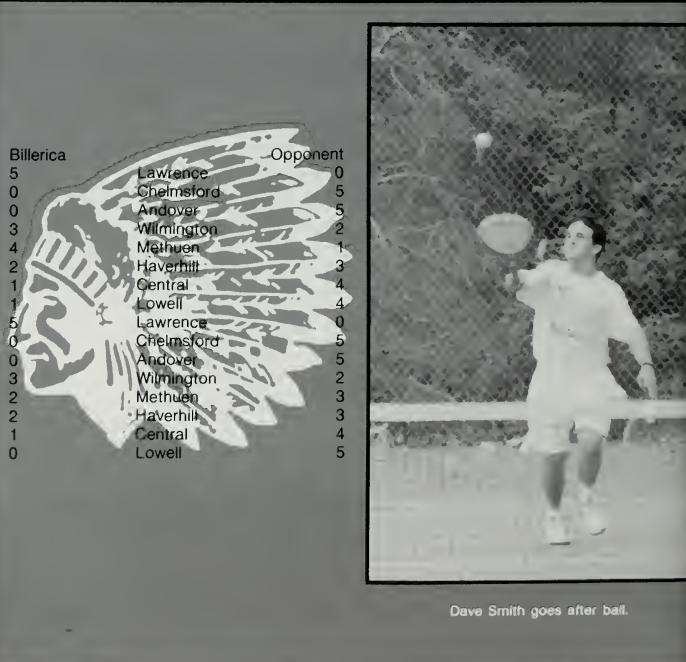

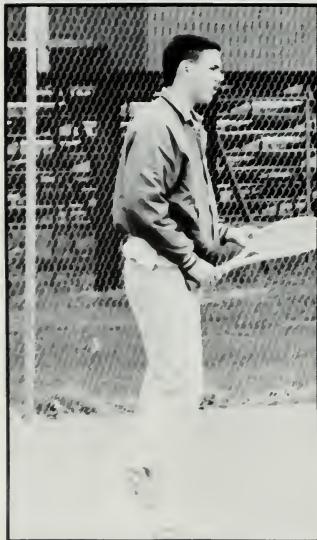

The Indians team played well in losing matches to Andover and Chelmsford and really demonstrated a complete team effort with close wins over a strong Wilmington team both home and away. (3-2, 3-2).

With only a few seniors leaving, the team is looking forward to an even better season next year.

Learning Our Lines

Dolly (Keri Allen) performs one of her many solos. ➤

This year's spring musical was the Broadway hit "Hello Dolly!" The most current version of this show, made famous by Carol Channing in 1964, is based on the play "The Matchmaker" by Thornton Wilder with music by Jerry Herman.

The story revolves around a flamboyant, jack-of-all-trades matchmaker, Dolly Levi, who in the midst of "meddling" in the lives of her clients decides to set her sights on a spouse for herself: the "half-a-millionaire," Horace Vandergelder. The hilarious plot involves four other main characters. All are in search of love and adventure. "Hello Dolly!" creates a magical getaway for all who see it and perform it.

Although this show was truly a blast to be in, it was also a lot of hard work. The cast "lived in the auditorium" for three months of rehearsals. It was not all fun and games between studying lines, perfecting songs, attending mandatory rehearsals, and maintaining grades at the same time.

But in the end cast members found that putting all of your effort into something you love pays off. This year's cast of 52 not only worked hard on stage, but off stage as well, raising over 14 thousand dollars, a BMHS record, in order to obtain all the materials necessary for the best possible show.

The class of '91 played a big part in "Hello Dolly!"'s success. Members of the class who had lead roles were: Keri Allen (Dolly), David Aylward (Vandergelder), Kristyn Mitchell (Irene Molloy), Andy Bartel (Cornelius), and Jennifer Schafer (Minnie Fay). Also in a lead was the class of '92's Lyle Aker (Barnaby). Appearing in supporting roles were Robin Carney (Erma-garde), Laren Cavicchio (Ernestina) and David Tassi (Rudolph). Other cast seniors included Cheryl Thebodo, Jonathan Lyra, Michelle Hennelly, and Amy Moorehead.

The students alone could not have pulled off such a massive production without the help of the staff and crew and the incredible hard work and imagination of dozens of set builders and costume designers, and others who made the show possible, most notably director Suzanne Robertson, and musical director Jeff Gage.

The townspeople bid them farewell as they begin their "adventure." ➤

Graduation: “The Finish Line”

The soon-to-be graduates make their way to the field.

Keri Allen sings the national anthem.

“Go ahead, make my day.” Whether you like Clint Eastwood or not, you know that line. It’s the embodiment of an in-your-face attitude that says, “I know I’m right and I’d love a chance to prove it.” It also seems, at least in my eyes, to be an attitude the Class of ‘91 has held for four years . . . As a class we have known when we are right and have backed up our words with actions.

It’s that determination to act on what we believe that I hope we can take with us to the world outside BMHS. It’s an attitude that relates to things large and small . . . [It’s the] doing and the believing that are important.”

Christopher Calabrese, Valedictorian

"...Traditionally, a salutatorian or presidential address dissects the class. It cuts up the class into little pieces of noteworthy accomplishments which can be put under the microscope and enlarged to 100 times their actual size. If I were to follow this pattern and expound all of the accomplishments of this class, then we would be here for graduation next year. I could mention how many canned goods this class has collected each year for the past four years for food shelters. I could mention all of the incredible athletes in this class and the endless accolades that they have earned. I could mention that members of this class have frequently helped transport food to the elderly home across the street from the high school. But, I do not want to do this. The class of 1991 should not be dissected. The people, not the accomplishments are what make this class so great. Together we stand."

How little can mere words reveal what our hearts so deeply feel.

We now have watched you step over from a school age child to a young woman, ready and able to deal with and conquer what life lays in your path. In these years of tremendous change and growth we have seen you travel from a charming, lovable child to a beautiful talented gifted young adult.

Although our job of parenting will last until our final breath, we stand back now and admire you as our hearts burst with pride. Our love and respect will be yours - - - forever.

Love,
Mom & Dad
